

Masters of Arts Graphic Art Studies

Master of Arts, Literature, Languages
Arts Honours
Graphic Art Studies

Objectives

The Graphic Art course is designed to broaden research skills in different areas:

- > production of a piece with the ability to apply perspective and critical thought to it.
- > developing theoretical consideration based on aesthetics and art sciences regarding a piece, artist, period or an issue related to graphic arts in their many forms and manifestations.

Who's it for?

Entry requirements

- > Bachelor in graphic arts for the M1.
 - > Master in graphic arts for the M2.
 - > Admission is also subject to approval by a head of research for a personal research project.
 - > Students of other specialities may be admitted based on their academic record.
-
- > Prepare your Master application
 - > Application terms

Skills

>Conduct independent research in a specific artistic field

Design a lesson or mediation session

>Use DTP, CAD and CAP-specific software

Design and produce artistic projects

>Design and make artworks: design, sculptures, drawing and engraving produce photographic images

>Design and make communication tools

Master office and IT tools Make public speeches to present projects

What's next?

Prospects

This Master's course is designed to train professionals in education, sales, mediation, research and design in the arts sector.

Graduates may work in business sectors such as:

- > Art exhibitions, research fields
 - > Visual design (photo, video, digital arts)
 - > Sectors involving graphic or visual art production
 - > Design and production
 - > Visual marketing careers
 - > Graphic artist, art photographer etc.
-