

Master of Management Control and Organisational Audit

Master of Law, Business, Management
Management Control and Organisational Audit Honours
Management Control and Information Systems Studies

Objectives

- > Provide students with the required technical skills of a management controller through in-depth classes about evaluation and cost control, budgeting tools and management, management control and variance analysis, reporting methods and techniques, investment management, group accounting. Sector-specific approaches to Management Control will be addressed in the fields of health, banking, university, association and large retailers. A specific approach to social Management Control is also available
- > Provide students with the technical skills required of an Auditor through classes about internal control, accounting and financial audit, logistics and quality audit, information system audit and security analysis in terms of data transfer.
- > Provide students with cross-disciplinary skills related to strategic management, information systems, understanding of building and using databases, broader knowledge of Excel and its advanced functions, use of enterprise resource planning (SAP and CEGID), English language in the company's accounting and financial departments.

Who's it for?

Target audience

- > Available to students with a 1st year Master or equivalent diploma in the fields of economic sciences and management, with or without a specialisation in accounting and financial subjects
  - Accounting Control Audit
  - Administration, Management Science or Management
  - Economy and Management
  - ESA option Business/organisation administration
  - Business School Students
- > Available to engineers or scientists as long as their training includes a significant management component or candidates who can demonstrate their knowledge of the subjects (e.g. a work placement).
- > Available to employees in advancement or vocational retraining with a master's degree or equivalent aforementioned diploma or at least an undergraduate degree and work experience approved by the Accreditation of Prior Experiential Learning (APEL).

> Foreign students involved in Campus France must apply on the website

Studyi

ng in France.

Foreign students must prove their level of French by achieving level B2 on the DELF (French test) based on the European common framework of reference within the last two years and the DALF C1 and C2.

Possibility of being awarded an IAE excellence grant. These grants are for students who wish to take a Masters 2 based on scientific excellence criteria and on condition of a clearly research-focused professional project.

Further information

Pre-requisites

Recommended:

Having had a significant amount of training in economy, management, finance.

Entry requirements

- > Eligibility: Review of academic record and cover letter (skills in writing, spelling and expression of career plans).
- > Apply online on the IAE website
- > Admission: interviews in the 2nd fortnight of April (1st wave of applications) and the 2nd fortnight of June (2nd wave of applications)
- > Result feedback: the week following the recruitment interview
- > Prepare your Master application

What's next?

Prospects

The MCOA speciality is designed to train managers in administrative and financial roles:

In any business sector and any type of private or public company: industrial, commercial or service companies, audit and consultancy firms, accounting firms, banks, associations, public sector etc.

Example of careers:

- > Management controller, budget controller, financial controller, administration controller (central, commercial, industrial, social etc.), management analyst, accounting manager, budget manager, management control director etc.
- > Internal or external auditor, risk manager...

Course

The MCOA Master classes are grouped into modules and designed to provide knowledge, work methods and highly specialist skills required of Management Controllers and/or Auditors:

- > Performance evaluation and management module: advanced and specialisation study of current Management Control techniques and methods
- > Audit and internal control module: understanding of current techniques and standards in Audit and Internal Control throughout the company's various operational departments
- > Business contexts and environment module: in-depth review of accounting techniques for groups and international consolidation standards, articulation between strategic management and management control, sector-specific approaches to Management Control
- > Language and work experience module: understanding of IT management tools (tables, databases, Enterprise Resource Planning) and contribution to structuring information systems in-company, study of technical English for management control, accounting and finance, long-term work placement (6-month placement or year-long apprenticeship as part of a sandwich course).

	Master 2 Management Control and Organisational Audit		Hours	Credits
Semester 3	Module 7: Performance assessment and management	Evaluation and cost control Dashboard performance management and budget developme nt and manageme nt report	121.5	14
	Module 8: Organisational Audit and internal control	Accounting and financial audit Internal audit and control Informatio n system audit and security Social audit Logistic and quality audit	93	10
	Module 9: Corporate context and environment	Group accounting Strategic managemen t Sector	56	6

		management control
Semes 4	Module 10: Tools decision-making, languages and vocational training	Management and evaluation of information system Database management ERP and decision-making tools English Work experience	141	30