

Geometric Random Graphs

Mihyun Kang (TU Graz)

Title: Topological aspects of random graphs

Abstract: In this talk we shall discuss various topological aspects of random graphs. How quickly does the genus of a random graph grow as the number of edges increases? How do topological constraints (such as imposing an upper bound on the genus) influence the structure of a random graph?